CV 3:24-cv-1282

PROOF OF SERVICE*(This section should not be filed with the court unless required by Fed. R. Civ. P. 4 (l))*

This summons for (name of individual and title, if any)

ALEXANDER SERGEY KOVAL

was received by me on (date)

August 21, 2024

RECEIVEDJAN 02 2025☒ Other (specify):

On August 24, 2024 at 10:59 am service of defendant Alexander Sergey Koval was initiated for the first time (see attached "FIRST SERVICE ATTEMPT") pursuant to F.R.Civ.P. 4(e)(1) and Mich. Ct. R. 2.105(A) by delivering to him the lawsuit service package as itemized in ECF 69 and 69-1 of this lawsuit, via certified U.S. mail with tracking number 70203160000230014728, return receipt requested, with delivery restricted to the addressee. This package was successfully delivered on August 26, 2024, at 11:29 am. (See the attached receipt copies and proofs from the U.S.P.S.)

MCR 2.105(A) Individuals: "Process may be served on a resident or nonresident individual by: (1) delivering a summons and a copy of the complaint to the defendant personally, or (2) sending a summons and a copy of the complaint by registered or certified mail, return receipt requested, and delivery restricted to the addressee."

Despite serving this lawsuit with the return receipt requested, per court guidelines, the return receipt mysteriously disappeared, which was the case in many of the lawsuit service packages sent. In fact, every individual bar defendant in this lawsuit managed to defeat, or persuade their mail carrier(s) to help defeat, the successful confirmation of service as intended in this rule, by either interfering with return of the "return receipt requested", returning it blank and unsigned devoid of any delivery information, or returning it signed by someone other than the named defendant to whom the lawsuit service was clearly addressed, despite delivery being restricted to that specific individual. (See 'Exhibit-A' filed in ECF 96-1, PID.5265-5285.)

Postmaster Danielle Weisenstein, from the Linden Michigan Post Office, researched the delivery of this parcel and confirmed that it was successfully delivered, while providing the U.S. Postal Service's internal delivery confirmation with 'signature image' from the mail carrier's electronic keypad, marked by the recipient at the time of delivery. Unfortunately, the recipient of this package drew two horizontal lines through the signature field on the keypad, instead of signing for the package, in what looks to have been an intentional effort to further obfuscate the confirmation of service. (See the attached receipt copies and proofs from the U.S.P.S.)

As a layer of redundancy to ensure that every defendant in this lawsuit was provided as much notice as possible, alternative service was executed via email using Streak Email Tracking Software, as explained in the MOTION FOR ALTERNATIVE SERVICE, filed in ECF 177 and 177-1. The attached screenshots show that defendant Koval was provided email notice at akoval@cw13.com on September 25, 2024, which was successfully received and viewed at least eleven times that same day. Furthermore, in a preliminary email seeking to confirm that akoval@cw13.com was an active email address used by defendant Koval, he replied to an inquiry with his professional signature block shown below (to the right), claiming to be the "Managing Attorney" for the Nashville division of Clark & Washington PC, while confirming both his identity as well as which law firm he is currently employed with. This information was cross-referenced and verified further by matching the address for Clark & Washington PC (in Nashville) with the address on file for "Koval, Alexander Sergey" as listed by the Board of Professional Responsibility of the Supreme Court of Tennessee, for BPR Number: 029541. As shown in the attached screenshots, after being served/notified by email, defendant Koval responded on September 26, 2024, at 7:42 am, by stating, "Do not contact me or my office under any circumstances." Obviously, he had received notice.

In an updated attached screenshot from December 13, 2024, of the email service provided to defendant Koval, he along with others on his behalf or to whom he may have forwarded that email have viewed it a total of two hundred and eleven times, while having clicked on the link in that email to Plaintiff's lawsuit service package (service.jefffenton.com), at least three times. At the provided link/url the entire lawsuit service package can be quickly and easily downloaded for free. For information about Streak Email Tracking Software please see <https://www.streak.com>. A video demonstration of this software can be viewed online at <https://www.youtube.com/watch?v=dMKtSYU-rd8>.

Due to concerns related to the delay of several outstanding defendants making an appearance in this matter, including defendant Koval, out of an abundance of caution, service of defendant Koval was initiated three more times, between the law firm where he is known to work and what is believed to be his personal residence, using registered and certified mail.

Mich. Ct. R. 2.105(K)(3) Process; Manner of Service, states: "An action shall not be dismissed for improper service of process unless the service failed to inform the defendant of the action within the time provided in these rules for service."

On October 21, 2024, at 10:41 am service of defendant Koval was initiated by U.S. Mail for the second time (see attached "SECOND SERVICE ATTEMPT"); this time at Clark & Washington PC, where he works. The lawsuit service package as itemized in ECF 69 and 69-1 of this lawsuit was sent to defendant Koval using registered U.S. mail, for more precise handling and controls, with tracking number RF753202406US, with delivery restricted to the addressee again, while requesting an electronic return receipt this time rather than the traditional green card, to prevent it from potentially becoming detached and getting lost in the mail. U.S.P.S. tracking records show that delivery was attempted on October 26 at 10:23 am, but no authorized recipient was available, so a notice was left. Followed by another delivery attempt and reminder from the U.S.P.S. on October 31. To date, defendant Koval has failed or refused to reschedule delivery or claim this item.

On October 28, 2024, at 3:46 pm service of defendant Koval was initiated for the third time (see attached "THIRD SERVICE ATTEMPT"); this time at the Paragon Mills address believed to be his personal residence, where he initially received service on August 26, 2024. In this instance, the lawsuit service package as itemized in ECF 69 and 69-1 of this lawsuit was sent to defendant Koval using registered mail with tracking number RF708196470US, while restricting delivery to defendant Koval, with an electronic return receipt requested in hopes of preventing any interference with the successful return of the confirmation of service as required by the court's rules. U.S.P.S. tracking records show that delivery was attempted on November 4, 2024 at 12:19 pm, but no authorized recipient was available, so a notice was left. Followed by another delivery attempt and reminder from the U.S.P.S. on November 9, 2024. To date, defendant Koval has failed or refused to reschedule delivery or claim this item.

This summons for (name of individual and title, if any)

was received by me on (date) August 21, 2024 .

On October 29, 2024 at 12:25 pm service of defendant Koval was initiated for the fourth time (see attached "FOURTH SERVICE ATTEMPT"); this time at Clark & Washington PC again in Nashville, where he works. Service was sent by certified mail with tracking number 70203160000230013585 to ensure that it was successfully delivered, but specifically without restricting delivery or requiring him to sign a return receipt, in hopes of bypassing the screening criteria he was believed to be using, to dodge service and deprive the successful confirmation of service as required by the court's rules.

By this point, it was known that defendant Koval was refusing to personally accept and sign for the lawsuit service package sent to his office by registered mail on October 21, during the second attempt to serve him, at the exact same address. It made no sense to try to simultaneously serve him two separate lawsuit service packages with the exact same address, restrictions, and proofs required, which he was actively refusing to allow delivery of and sign for.

Therefore, for the fourth and final service attempt of defendant Koval by United States Mail, the restrictions and proofs were dropped in an attempt to ensure that the lawsuit service package had the best chance of reaching him. This was to provide defendant Koval with as much notice as he would realistically allow under the circumstances, without unreasonably multiplying the costs of service to hire someone to chase after and attempt to further corner defendant Koval, when he clearly had already received notice and has knowledge about this lawsuit.

On October 31, 2024, at 10:36 am the U.S.P.S. tracking records show that lawsuit service package was successfully delivered to Clark & Washington PC, at 1321 Murfreesboro Pike, Suit 320, Nashville, TN 37217-2858. (See the attached receipt copies and proofs from the U.S.P.S.)

Service of this lawsuit was executed pursuant to F.R.Civ.P. 4(e)(1) and Mich. Ct. R. 2.105(A), since this lawsuit was originally filed in the United States District Court for the Western District of Michigan. That being the same court who executed the summonses to serve with this lawsuit, which were first received from the court in Lansing, Michigan by Plaintiff and myself on August 21, 2024.

Mich. Ct. R. 2.105(K)(3) Process; Manner of Service, states: "An action shall not be dismissed for improper service of process unless the service failed to inform the defendant of the action within the time provided in these rules for service."

My efforts in this matter have been to err on the side of caution, for the benefit of the defendants, while successfully completing service with the highest degree of reliability I know how, for this price point. I have done so honestly and honorably, with tremendous diligence through steadfast work, regardless of the challenges experienced to stymie or thwart my efforts.

I declare under penalty of perjury that this information is true.

ALEXANDER KOVAL CLARK & WASHINGTON, PC 1321 MURFREESBORO PIKE STE 320 NASHVILLE, TN 37217-2858

Defendant Koval has been believed to be intentionally dodging service for months, while having already received service once previously from the USPS, with Restricted Delivery on 8/26/2024, but the Return Receipt Requested mysteriously disappeared, while even his signature on the Postal Carrier's Electronic Keypad showed two horizontal lines where he was supposed to sign for the package.

This package was sent with minimal restrictions, via Certified Mail, without a signed Return Receipt required. Though this lacks proofs required by the court, this defendant refuses to provide those proofs, so it's a matter of compounding proofs to demonstrate to the court that Plaintiff has met the burden of "reasonable efforts" to serve this defendant, while clearly providing him with sufficient notice to protect his interests via equal and due process, if he elects to do so.

Defendant Koval was separately served via email at akoval@cw13.com (an email address he confirmed is his active account) on September 25, 2024, using email tracking software, which confirmed that he received the email, opened the email many times, forwarded it to others, and even clicked on the link in the email to where Plaintiff has provided his complete Lawsuit Service Package online at <https://service.jeffenton.com>, where Plaintiff has also provided summonses for each defendant, for alternative service.

Though it has been known that defendant Koval (and other defendants) have long been notified about this lawsuit, he (along with many of the defendants involved in the fraudulent litigation in the United States Bankruptcy Court for the Middle District of Tennessee) have refused to make an appearance in this matter.

Strategically, the proofs required for service by the court's rules have been lacking (due to the defendants actions to dodge service and deprive confirmation of service). Therefore, out of an abundance of caution, service was resent to defendant Koval (and other defendants) many different ways, using both Registered and Certified Mail, both at his residence as well as at Clark & Washington PC, where he claimed to be the "Managing Attorney", some while Restricting Delivery to the Addressee (Defendant), some without Restricted Delivery. Similarly, some while requesting the Return Receipt and some without, in an attempt to bypass whatever screening criteria he has been using to dodge confirmation of service, to provide the highest probability of delivery, by as many means as are known, fiscally responsible and within reach.

OK, can I call the office later in the day, perhaps tomorrow?

I have availability usually later in the afternoon.

Or is there a better time I should call?

I also want to inform you that you have been named as a defendant in lawsuit 1:23-cv-01097 in the U.S. District Court for the Western District of Michigan. You should have received service of process by registered/certified mail pursuant to Michigan rule of civil procedure 2.105. Details of served process and the entire case can be found and downloaded here: freely downloadable civil action in its entirety.

If you choose not to accept the relevant U.S. mail and/or decline to enter an appearance in the matter, a default judgment against you will be entered since you now have knowledge of the case.
